IS IT A Buck or Cross-Gut Saw ?

We have found that for several years in the month of November our sales of Buck and Cross Cut Saws were double those of any other three months.

Whether this is due to the approach of the wood sawing season or because at this time we offer exceptional values in saws we don't know, probably both. Any way our values should appeal to you. This is the way prices run on our Atkin's Buck and Cross

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The Rev. R. W. Bennett has ceased his work at the Union House Free Baptist church, Sutton, having accepted a call to the pastorate of the Free Baptist church at South Strafford.

At the meeting of the University of Vermont, Burlington, students yester-day the following officers were chosen: B L. Hard, manager of football; C. B. Orton, assistant manager of football; C. L. Ranney, assistant manager of basket ball. The choice of an assistant manager of baseball was postponed for the present.

Professor C. L. Beach has been granted leave of absence by the University of Vermont, Burlington, and has accepted an invitation to pass the month of January at the Connecticut Agricultural college. He will give instruction in the winter school short courses in dairy and creamery practice and man-agement, assisted by H. L. Garrigus, farm superintendent at Storrs.

Mrs. Clarissa Stone, the oldest member of the Seventy club, St. Johnsbury, celebrated her ninety-second birthday anniversary Friday, December 14, in a very quiet manner. Owing to the cold weather Mrs. Stone generally celebrates his event in the summer. Nevertheless the day did not pass without callers, and gifts, letters and congratulations made the day a very pleasant one.

Bennington a Railroad Center. The Rutland railroad company has accepted the plans and specifications for a new turntable and a brick roundhouse of modern type to be built at Bennington in the spring.
